The Honorable William Casey Central Intelligence Agency Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to ask you if you are willing to be interviewed for one of this year's issues of the Penman. The Penman is a student literary-art magazine of long-standing quality. It has been consistently distinguished on state and national levels for the past three decades, and we would like to continue this tradition. We have found that a well-done interview can be the most interesting and informative of our non-fiction articles. We seek to interview people who can speak on topics of national and international significance which are of interest to our student readers. Our past interviews have included such people as Roger Mudd, Dan Rather, and Clark Clifford.

If you would be willing to extend us an interview, please contact us as soon as possible. We can come to any nearby location, or if it would be more convenient, we have the facilities for a telephone interview. While we cannot detail our questions immediately, we would send you a transcript of our topics and questions before an interview.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Peter Grendler
